

8 St Ives Avenue FRANKSTON SOUTH VIC

4 2 2

Notable for its timeless aesthetic and classic architecture, its private grounds and prized position, this family home of light-letting proportions promises a peaceful retreat merging a charming dual-storey design with secluded gardens across 2,698sqm (approx.) of land.

Holding an address within one of Frankston South's most sought-after avenues, a family-centric layout invites north-facing garden views across a flow-between of living and dining space. An internal servery window establishes connection between the zones, with a dine-in kitchen of practical proportions inspiring functional meal preparation.

Journeying upstairs, a vast rumpus room opens to three bedrooms each sharing in dormer windows and large dimensions, including the master bedroom with timeless spa-ensuite and large walk-in robe with roof storage
